Recertification Policies

Professional development is required for CPLP and APTD credential holders to remain current in the field and to enhance their continued competence. To fulfill this requirement, CPLPs must accumulate 60 CPLP recertification points and APTDs must accumulate 40 APTD recertification points during each three-year recertification period in order to maintain their designation. CPLPs who certified on or before May 1, 2016 must also submit a completed Open-Book Assessment on Global Mindset. CPLP and APTD recertification points are earned in the following categories:

Categories	Maximum Allowable CPLP Points Per Three-Year Period	Maximum Allowable APTD Points Per Three-Year Period
1. Continuing Education	30	20
2. Speaking and Instructing	20	15
3. On-the-Job Experience	20	15
4. Research and Publishing	20	15
5. Leadership and Recognition	15 ¹	10 ²
6. Professional Membership	15	10

All CPLP and APTD recertification points must tie directly to one or more areas of The ATD Competency Model to qualify. A description of category requirements and examples of eligible activities are outlined in the following sections of this document.

Recertification Categories

Continuing Education 30 point max for CPLP/ 20 point max for APTD

- One point is awarded for each physical hour of continuing education except where specified (see social learning and undergraduate or graduate work listing under the eligible activities section).
- Points are earned for continuing education within your current role or job that involves a new talent development experience or new talent development content.
- Points are accrued on an hourly basis for all educational time in talent development related continuing education events, including online training.
- Educational activities must directly contribute to the CPLP's/APTD's understanding of the talent development profession.
- Recertification points are not awarded for non-educational time incorporated in educational activities such as breaks, networking, registration, preparation, and assignments.

Example of Eligible Continuing Education Activities

- Attending commercially available talent development educational courses or talent development workshops.
- Attending educational sessions related to the talent development industry at local conferences such as ATD or SHRM chapter sponsored conferences.

¹ Leadership and Recognition maximum allowable points are set at 15 for CPLP per three-year cycle except for ATD CI CPLP assigned activities where it is possible to earn up to 30 CPLP points. See category information for details.

² Leadership and Recognition maximum allowable points are set at 10 for APTD per three-year cycle except for ATD CI APTD assigned activities where it is possible to earn up to 20 APTD points. See category information for details.

- Attending talent development chapter events or other talent development industry meetings
 - Business meetings, committee meetings, and general information meetings are not eligible.
- Attending undergraduate or graduate-level talent development courses from an accredited institution = eligible for 5 points per credit hour.

Speaking and Instructing

20 point max for CPLP/ 15 point max for APTD

- Points are awarded per hour.
- Points are earned for speaking or instructing on a talent development-related subject within one's current role or job or may involve a new talent development experience or new talent development content.
- Points can also be earned for development work. For every hour of delivery, the individual receives an hour of development time³. For example, if an individual presents for an hour and spends two hours in development, the individual receives a total of 2 points.
- Points are awarded the first time the presentation is made and may not be earned for repeated presentations.

Example of Eligible Speaking and Instructing Activities

- Presenting an educational activity on a talent development topic at a conference at the national or local level.
- Presenting at an annual meeting for a talent development professional society.
- Leading a talent development session or workshop.
- Presenting a talent development-related topic in a webinar
- Presenting a talent development-related topic in a podcast

³ Credit for development time has been added as a result of feedback from talent development professionals.

- Conducting speaking engagements or instructing private organizations, such as community groups, professional business groups, a class at a university or college, or charities on talent development content only.

On-the-Job Experience

20 point max for CPLP/ 15 point max for APTD

- Points are awarded per hour.
- Points can be earned for a first-time work experience if that activity adds or enhances the understanding of the talent development body of knowledge.
- Points can be earned for both development and delivery work. For example, if it requires 200 hours to develop a competency model for your organization, and three hours to present it, you would earn the maximum points allowable in this category, which is 20 points.

Examples of Eligible On-the-Job Experience Activities

- Developing a competency model for your organization.
- Designing a new training program.
- Calculating return on investment for a new training program

Research and Publishing

20 point max for CPLP/ 15 point max for APTD

- Points are awarded per published work as specified in the following chart.
- Co-authors earn half points.
 - Book = 20 points
 - Thesis = 20 points
 - Book Chapter = 10 points
 - Research article for a relevant electronic newsletter or formal blog = 4 points
 - Peer-reviewed article = 3 points
 - Non-peer-reviewed article = 2 points
 - Research article for an official organization, professional, or company blog = 2 points
 - Published job aid or performance support tool = 1 point

Examples of Eligible Research and Publishing Activities

- Author or co-author of a talent development-related article in a journal or magazine, such as TD magazine.
- Author or co-author of a talent development-related book.
- Author or co-author of a chapter in a talent development-related book.
- Author or co-author of a talent development-related dissertation or master's thesis.

Ineligible activities: Work that is part of a marketing effort rather than a teaching effort, website comments, informal blogs, wiki entries, and other unedited online items.

Leadership and Recognition

15 point max⁴ for CPLP/ 10 point max for APTD

- Points are awarded for specific activities that support the profession through volunteerism and/or leadership.
- Leadership points are awarded for volunteer activities for talent development-related national or local associations (such as ATD and SHRM).
- Points are also earned for awards given to the individual (not to the institution or establishment).
- Recertification points are not awarded for leadership activities that have no direct talent development link. Following are some examples of activities that may earn recertification points in the Leadership and Recognition category.

Examples of Eligible Leadership and Recognition Activities

⁴ The maximum increases from 15 to 30 CPLP points per three-year cycle for ATD CI CPLP assigned activities only. The maximum increases from 10 to 20 APTD points per three-year cycle for ATD CI APTD assigned activities only.

⁵ Per year distribution.

Professional Membership

15 point max for CPLP/ 10 point max for APTD

- Points are awarded for active membership in a national, international, or local talent development-related professional association or society.
- Points are awarded per year.
- Points are earned for unique and mutually exclusive experiences and not for interrelated experiences. For example, you may not earn points for being a chapter member and a chapter president for the same term.

Examples of Eligible Leadership and Recognition Activities

- ATD National Member = 4 CPLP points or 3 APTD points per year
- ATD Chapter Member = 3 CPLP points or 2 APTD points per year
- Other national or local talent development-related membership (such as SHRM) = 2 CPLP points or 1 APTD point per year

Global Mindset Open-Book Assessment

For any CPLP credential holder certified on or before May 1, 2016, an Open-Book Assessment on the global mindset foundational competency must also be submitted at the time of recertification. All CPLP credential holders will receive the global mindset chapter of the ATD Learning System from ATD at no fee in December 2015. When recertifying, in addition to the Recertification Tracking Worksheet with the required 60 recertification credits, credential holders will submit the recertification fee payment and the completed Open-Book Assessment. If you submit the assessment and do not pass, you will be notified and given a retest assessment. You will have multiple attempts to pass at no additional cost.

Recertification Administrative Procedures

Submission Instructions

1. Submit completed recertification packet, including the Recertification Application, Open-Book Assessment (if applicable), and recertification fee payment.
2. Incomplete packets will not be considered.
3. The open-book assessment is required from all CPLPs who obtained the CPLP credential before May 1, 2016. This does not apply to APTD credential holders or CPLP's who obtained certification after May 1, 2016.
4. Do not submit supplemental documentation unless requested (see Recertification Program Audit Process).
5. Mail completed packet to:

ATD CI
c/o Recertification
1640 King St.
Alexandria, VA 22314
USA

Review Process

- Candidates must submit the recertification packet by the postmark deadline or the application will not be accepted.
- If the recertification packet is not submitted by the postmark deadline, then certification status will be revoked. Once certification status has been revoked, individuals must reapply and successfully complete the requirements to earn the CPLP or APTD certification.
- Packet will be reviewed by ATD Certification Institute (ATD CI) staff.
- If there is a problem with your recertification materials, ATD CI staff will contact you to resolve it. We suggest that you include more than the minimum required credits in the unlikely event that there are problems with activities that you have reported.
- If your application is approved, you will be recertified and a new certificate will be issued.
- Certification staff is unable to pre-approve recertification credits. If you have any doubts about program eligibility, add extra entries as a safe measure.

Fees and Deadlines

The CPLP recertification application fee is $200 dollars. The APTD recertification application fee is $150 dollars. All packets must be submitted with the application fee or the application will not be processed.

The recertification cycle begins the first day of the month after notification of your CPLP/APTD success and it is valid for three years. For example, if you were notified that you passed the SAE on March 2, 2017, then your recertification cycle begins April 1, 2017 and ends March 31, 2020.

All recertification points must be accrued within the cycle timeframe.

Credential holders may submit applications up to three months before their recertification date.

All submissions must be postmarked by the recertification deadline. Applications received after the deadline will not be accepted.

Application Audit Process

ATD CI will use both a random and targeted selection procedure when auditing recertification applications. The audit review process is as follows:

1. ATD CI staff will identify recertification applications to be audited and notify designees through email and regular mail in advance.
2. Selected individuals will be asked to submit both the recertification application and supporting documentation of their activities as outlined in the recertification application document.
3. Audited individuals must postmark their submissions by the recertification deadline.
4. If your documentation is not sufficient, ATD CI staff will provide you with feedback through email and you will have an opportunity to correct it and resubmit.
5. You will have two weeks to submit corrections after feedback has been provided.
6. If your documentation suffices, you will be recertified and a new certificate will be issued.

Important! To ensure you receive all recertification information, be sure to have up-to-date contact information in the Certification Registry. To update your information, go to <https://www.td.org/certification/registry>.
